Online Ethics Center
FOR ENGINEERING AND SCIENCE

Letter Report: Protecting Participants in Behavioral and Social Science Research

Author(s)

Anonymous

Year

2002

Body

"This letter provides the panel's initial recommendations on four topics: protection of confidentiality of information obtained from human research participants; requirements for informed consent, particularly for advance written consent; procedures for determination of exempt research and for expedited review of low-risk research; and system-level issues, such as training of researchers and accreditation."

Read Letter Report: Protecting Participants in Behavioral and Social Science Research

Rights

Use of Materials on the OEC

Resource Type

Expert Reports

Parent Collection

The National Academies Press: Consensus Study Reports

Topics

Confidentiality
Data Management
Human Subjects Research
Risk

Discipline(s)

Research Ethics
Social and Behavioral Sciences

Publisher

National Academies Press